The Big Blind

2005 ADELAIDE HILLS NEBBIOLO BARBERA

It was 1948... Deano was drunk. I was drunker... JR had hit rock bottom. The oil business had dried up a few years back, and he was working as a short order cook in Denver... I'd been drifting for a while... from one bar brawl to another... and stumbled into his diner at 1am on the 5th July... I'd not seen him since our days on Rikers... We'd always shared a passion... no, a dream... to make Australian wine... JR had a little money stashed away, and I could make a little money go a long way... so we gave it one last shot... off to the desert... a chance to make both our futures... 15 hours at the table... two players left... Ace/10... it was do or die... ALL IN... and the River was kind... a pair of aces and First Drop was born...
